

Geography

This will be covered in the Summer term

English

Class Books—Owl babies and Owl Who is Afraid of the Dark

Comparison with fiction and non-fiction books

Non Chronological Report (fact file)

History

Art

Paul Klee- clay habitats

Picasso- Portraits

Weaving Owls

Music

Language of music - exploration and development

Rock music - rhythm, pitch and pulse.

Maths

Number; multiplication and division
Statistics—Topic session

Computing

using technology - develop typing speed and accuracy to enable independent and efficient access to a computer.

Nocturnal Animals

PSHCE

Keeping healthy

R.E

Believing

Theme

Science

Physical Education

Multi-skills

Tennis

WOW events!

Make and compare bird feed—fat balls

How can we support Spring Watch

Hedgehog hospital—visitor

Far Ings—visit?

Design Technology

To be able to design and make a bird table

To design and make a salad

Science

Suggest how an animal is able to survive in their habitat.

Answer questions about habitats they have researched.

Explain why the animals in a habitat need the plants.

Draw a simple food chain.

Animals and their habitats

Awareness of the term Nocturnal and Light and shadow